

I surrender
-Going Deeper

God, give me eyes to see and ears to hear. Show me what you want to say to me today.

Surrender is difficult. It sounds like weakness or defeat. But is that what it really is? Maybe when it comes to our relationship with God, surrender is actually something beautiful, something powerful. Perhaps surrender to God is actually the willingness to let God be God in your life, to let Him be in control, to let Him do what He wants to do, to let God love and to let God lead.

As you begin to process this idea, ask God to open your heart and your mind to the beauty of true surrender.

Is God worth surrendering to? Read Psalm 139 and write down any words or phrases that make you want to trust God and surrender more fully to Him.

Why is it important to know the one you are surrendering to?

You follow me

What prevents you from surrendering to God? What are the consequences?

You are not alone

The Sabbath is a day of rest, but it's also a day of trust as we trust that God will provide for us even when we take a full day off. Select a day this week to celebrate the Sabbath. A few days after your Sabbath observance, take note of how God provide for you as you trusted and surrendered to Him during that day.

Write down your thoughts pertaining to the things that we are discovering that God is saying to us. How do you need to respond to those whispers?

I love you

How long?

Give it to me
