Going Deeper—Living it Out

Who are the people in your life that are difficult to love? What makes them difficult to love?

Do we end up trying harder to love them or finding ways to not have to try to love them? Why?

What would it look like to have Jesus' kind of love for those in your life who are the hardest to love?

Describe some of the cycles of life you see around you. How do they open our eyes to the cycle of life that needs to happen in us in order to be able to love like Jesus?

What things in you need to die so that Jesus can be more alive in you?

To be part of the church, to be an image-bearer of Christ, who He is should be flowing through you to the world. What would this look like?

Read 2 Corinthians 5.17. What does it mean when we say that God is creating a new you?

Creation
Genesis 1

Colossians 1.16-17

Ephesians 2.10

A new mindset to see the common grace and to love them in deep in your heart.

[big questions]

Who would you have a difficult time including in the "all of you?"

What does the love of Christ look like in you?

What fragments do you need God to put back together?

Philippians: Companions in Grace

Going Deeper—Living it Out

Read Isaiah 61.1-2. Which words or ideas describe the broken areas of your life that need to be put back together?

God takes the fractured pieces and puts them back together bringing new life. How did God do that in Genesis 50.15-21? How have you seen God do that in you?

As God is putting the broken pieces of your life back together and unleashing His new creation in you, how are you discovering that the names and words that describe your brokenness are being changed to reveal your new wholeness?

MEMORIZE THIS!

It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart; for whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the gospel, all of you share in God's grace with me. God can testify how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus.
